HISTORIC SITES AND MONUMENTS BOARD OF CANADA DOMINION LAND SURVEY SYSTEM

The first Monument on the Dominion Land Survey was placed 10th July, 1871, on the Principal Meridian, about half a mile south of this site.

The System, then inaugurated by Lieutenant-Colonel J. S. Dennis, Surveyor-General, extends across the Prairies and to the Pacific Coast. It now embraces more than two hundred million acres of surveyed lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and parts of British Columbia.

This site donated by the Honorable Almed Bémard and John T. Haig, K.C.

Revised 1930.
